

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Cardio Quiz

1. The receiving chambers of the heart are the _____.
2. The closing of the _____ valves cause the “lub” sound of the heart.
T or F. 3. The AV valves are only closed when the ventricles are contracting.
4. The parietal pericardium is the fibrous sac that surrounds and anchors the heart to the _____ and _____.
5. The left side of the heart pumps into the _____ circulation.
6. The right AV valve is also known as the _____ valve.
7. If your heart beats too rapidly for its tissues to get enough oxygen, you would feel a crushing heart pain known as _____.
8. The _____ is the smooth layer that lines the atria and the ventricles.
9. Valves that do not close correctly are known as _____ valves.
10. What is the purpose of serous fluid?